

Charles G. Riggins

Obit-Gonzales Inquirer Jan. 10, 1977

Charles Riggins Services Wednesday

Last rites will be held from the Seydler-Hill chapel at 10 a.m. Wednesday for Charles Riggins of Sanderson, who died in a Del Rio Hospital Sunday. Burial will be in the City Cemetery.

The Rev. Warren Hornung pastor of the First United Methodist church, will officiate at the rites.

Among local survivors are two sisters-in-law, Misses Lydia and Olga Ebel. He was preceded in death by his wife in February 1975.

Gonzales Inquirer Jan. 11, 1977

Riggins Pallbearers Named

Pallbearers for the 10 a.m. Wednesday services for Charles Riggins include Gerald Shaklin, Leonard Shanklin, Kevin Shanklin, Leroy Haak, Bob Rutherford, Larry Gray, Ernest Ehrig and Ben E. Davis.

Honorary pallbearers are J.Q. Short, Anderson Ervin, Fred Droupy and members of the Lions Club in Sanderson.

Riggins was the husband of the late Cecelia (Teeler) Ebel, who preceded him in death in 1975.

In addition to his two sisters-in-law, he is survived by a niece, Mrs. Gerald Shanklin of this city.

Obit-Gonzales Inquirer Jan. 12, 1977

Charles Riggins Funeral Services Wednesday

Charles G. Riggins, whose funeral was held Wednesday at 10 a.m. from the Seydler-Hill Chapel is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Hester Stumberg and Mrs. Eva Hill both of Alpine, Mrs. Fannie Huff of San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. Reba Liles of North Little Rock Ark., four brothers, Davis Hinson of Berryville, Ark., J. W. Hinson of Del Rio, Hoy Riggins of Republic MO., and Hoy Riggins of Fayetteville, Ark.

Mr. Riggins was a member of the National Jewelry Association, having served as its president, was a member of the Sanderson Lions Club where he served as secretary for 15 years, and had worked for the Lions Crippled Children's Hospital.